

Social and Personal

Mrs. J. Allison Hodges is in Winston-Salem, N. C., where she is a guest of Mrs. Lindsay Patterson. Mrs. John Hays Hammond, of Washington, with several others from that city, are among the other guests at Mrs. Patterson's home. In Winston-Salem, Mrs. Hammond is delightfully remembered. In Richmond, where she spent several days last spring, she came to Richmond to make an address at the Woman's Club, and was entertained by Mrs. Hodges at a very handsome luncheon given in her honor during her stay here.

Returned to Richmond.

Mrs. J. Stanford Hutchison has returned to Richmond, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. T. Thompson, in Farmville. Mrs. Hutchison has as her guests for this week, Miss Janet Duval, of Farmville.

A brilliant event to take place this evening will be the ball given by the Richmond Light Infantry Blues in the armory. Captain John Cutchins is chairman of the ball, and all arrangements for the affair are most elaborate. Decorations will be in colored bunting and flags, and palms will be banked at one end of the dance hall, where the receiving party will stand. Patronesses for the ball are limited to the women of the ball, and all arrangements connected with the Blues Association, and the receiving party will be the Governor of Virginia and Mrs. William Hodges Mann, Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. J. Taylor Elyson, and Mayor and Mrs. D. C. Richardson. Mrs. Mann will wear a gown of black crepe meteor, and will carry a bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Elyson will wear grey satin, made with an overdress of silver lace and finished with grey fur.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Johnson, daughter of Dr. Joseph Taylor Johnson, was married to Earl Wheeler. The ceremony was performed on the wide piazza of Dr. Johnson's country residence, in Cherrydale, Va., by the Rev. Henry Smith. Great quantities of dogwood were used to decorate, and a stringed orchestra played during the service and for the reception which followed. "The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white, trimmed with old lace, and her veil was of black tulle. Her collar was of orange blossoms, and she carried a large bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her two little nieces and nephews—Edith Bushnell, Neville Johnson and Bascom Johnson, all wearing white. Dr. H. E. Ingie, of Philadelphia, was best man.

A reception followed. Mrs. Johnson received the guests wearing a handsome gown of gray crepe meteor, trimmed with old lace, and a corsage bouquet of orchids. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler left Washington on a motor trip. Mrs. Wheeler wore a smart black suit and hat. Upon their return the last of May they will live in Cherrydale, where they have a large estate.

"Among those who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Johnson, Miss Elinor Johnson, Miss Valeria Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Hankin Johnson and Mrs. Ernest Walter Smith, of Hartford, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kaufmann, Miss Barbara Kaufmann, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leupp, Admiral and Mrs. Rixey, the Misses Brainerd, Dr. Henry B. Deale, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hays, Commander Bryan L. and Mrs. Bryan, Rear-Admiral A. W. Weaver, Mrs. Walter S. Pittkin, Captain and Mrs. Day, John Barrett, Dr. and Mrs. Loren Johnson, and Mrs. Regina Johnson, of Pasadena, Cal."

The Woman's Club of York Union met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bernard Burgess. The study of the "Renaissance and the Great Painters of That Period," begun at the last meeting by an address from W. R. Moncreux, was continued. A paper on Botticelli was read by Mrs. E. S. Ligon. Raphael, Rubens, Titian and Rembrandt were discussed and copies of the works shown. The committee on town improvement has arranged a system of work to be done in the town. The officers of this club are Mrs. William E. Hatcher, president; Mrs. E. S. Ligon, first vice-president; Miss Rebecca Cleveland, second vice-president; Mrs. L. Payne Cooper, secretary; Mrs. Ernest Burgess, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bernard Burgess, treasurer; Mrs. Fletcher Wright, chairman of civic reform.

Engagement of Interest.

An interesting engagement recently announced in Newport News is that of Miss Charlotte Seldon, sister of Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Wellford, to James Thomas. The wedding will be celebrated in that city on June 15. The wedding is of much importance to Virginia society, both bride and groom being very prominently related through the State.

Important Meetings.

Members of the Oakwood Memorial Association are requested to meet at Oakwood this morning at 10 o'clock to make garlands for decorating the soldiers' section for Memorial Day. The music for Oakwood Memorial Day will be directed by Professor James Harwood. A quartet composed of Mrs. R. C. Duesberry, Mrs. Miller, Mr. Tuck and Currie Boshier will sing "How Firm a Foundation" and "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Art Club of Richmond will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the clubrooms. All members are urged to attend this meeting.

The grandchildren of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Chapter No. 1, auxiliary to the Richmond Chapter, will meet this afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian Association, corner of Fifth and Grace Streets. A full attendance is urged, since this meeting closes the list of charter members of this chapter. Any boy or girl under eighteen years of age is eligible.

Chesterfield Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. P. A. Ford, 1901 West Grace Street. A full attendance is desired.

Social Next Week.

The members of Mrs. Edgington's Sunday school class of Park Place Methodist Church will hold a missionary sock social on Thursday evening, May 16, at 1829 Floyd Avenue. A most delightful and amusing program has been arranged, and Mrs. Edgington's pupils will present "The Colored Suffragettes."

The May Queen Spectacle, for the Retreat for the Sick, will take place on Wednesday, May 22, in the auditorium of the Mechanics' Institute. Sixty-five girls will take part, including the May Queen and her court, the four seasons and their months, the little fairies, which will be taken by very small children, twenty girls dancing in the May pole dance. It will be a very interesting and delightful entertainment.

Final Meeting.

"The Messengers," a club composed of the cash and relief girls of the Miller & Rhoads firm, will have a final party at the Young Women's Christian Association rooms this evening before disbanding for the summer. The chaperons for the evening are Miss Donna and Mrs. Richardson will be gowned in white satin draped in real lace and embroidered in pearls.

The ball will be a very magnificent spectacle and several hundred guests have been invited. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Plimley Here.

Mrs. Gardner Plimley, of Charles, W. V., arrives in Richmond this morning, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Selden Jones, at her home, on N. Plum Street. Mrs. Plimley was formerly Miss Matilda Jones, of this city, and her wedding was an important society event of the fall season.

Pretty Wedding.

PRESBYTERIAN UNION MEETS.

Interesting Session on Tuesday and Wednesday at Chatham.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Chatham, Va., May 9.—The Presbyterian Union of Roanoke Presbytery convened with the church at this place on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Laymen Smith, of the Missionary Survey, made the opening address, concluding his remarks to home missions.

The first session of the union was at 10 o'clock Wednesday, when delegates were enrolled and reports considered. Wednesday afternoon was featured by a special program by the church, which was given by Dr. B. B. Armstrong, now on his farjourney from missionary work in China, will address the union and public generally. Since organization of the union, the largest number present at the opening session was at this place.

The congressional campaign, by the way, is daily attracting more interest. Judge Watson is making an active personal canvass, and both candidates are assisted and both both candidates are assisted by hard working friends.

Predictions as to the result are free made on both sides, friends of both candidates confidently claiming victory.

Arrested for Forgery.

William Lawson, negro, was arrested by Chief Ragland this morning on two separate charges of forgery, the name of G. B. Barker, of Chicago, Dinwiddie, being the one used in each case. Lawson yesterday obtained two quart bottles of whiskey from the Jefferson Liquor Company on a well written order purporting to be signed by Mr. Barker. This morning Lawson returned to the Jefferson Company's store with another order alleged to be from Barker, and obtained a third quart of whiskey. A few minutes later Mr. Barker was seen and asked about the order, which he promptly declared to be forged. Chief Ragland was notified, and in going out to hunt for Lawson, found him in front of the station, with the third bottle of whiskey in his hand.

Personal Notes.

W. M. Rucker, of the West End Baptist Church, on Sunday night for Oklahoma City, Okla., en route to the Southern Baptist Convention, which meets there on Wednesday, the 15th instant. He will be the only representative from Petersburg.

The Rev. F. W. Moore, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, expects to sail for Europe on Monday, as he is in company with other Virginia ministers, several of them from Richmond.

The reception given by the Patterson Bible class to-night to the Rev. J. A. McClure, the new pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, was attended by a large number of the members of the church and by representatives of other denominations. The occasion was one of most cordial welcome and good feeling. There was an informal introduction of all present to the pastor, and the formal introduction of the pastor in a fine address delivered by Hon. William B. McIlwaine.

Major-General Stith Bolling, commanding the Virginia Division, United Confederate Veterans, was unable to go to the Macon reunion on account of his home duties. In his stead, yesterday, adopted a resolution expressing love for the general, and regrets that he could not be present, and telegraphed him to that effect.

City Auditor G. B. Gill yesterday shipped to his son, the Rev. J. M. Gill, a young missionary at Nanking, China, a fine shotgun, not to be used for offense or defense, but for hunting, birds being plentiful around Nanking.

Social Session and Smoker.

A. P. Hill Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, has sent out invitations to Confederate veterans and members to a smoker to be given to-morrow night in the camp hall. The occasion is to be made interesting by short talks and war stories. To-morrow is the forty-ninth anniversary of the death of Stonewall Jackson, and an address on this important incident in Confederate history will be delivered.

Death in Ettrick.

Edward P. Nunnally, aged forty-five years, a well-known citizen and carpenter, died at an early hour this morning at his home in that village. After several years of ill health, he is survived by his wife, two daughters—Misses Ella S. and Mary E. Nunnally—and one son, Paul J. Nunnally. Also by two sisters and two brothers.

Brief News Notes.

Evangelist R. D. Garland will close his engagement with the Second Baptist Church to-morrow night. About thirty members have been added to the church during the revival there.

Brook Curry is moving his training school for the colored community from Richmond, to the West End Park in this city, where there is a fine track for practice.

Delegates Elected.

The Democratic City Convention to elect nine delegates to the State convention, which meets in Norfolk on May 23, met at A. P. Hill Hall to-night and elected the following delegates: J. J. Neils, George Cameron, Jr., P. H. Drewry, I. P. Barham, C. T. Lassiter, Dr. J. M. Burke, R. W. Price, J. W. Price, J. G. Quarles and H. H. Perkins. A resolution was adopted in favor of Dr. J. M. Burke, chairman of the City Democratic Committee, as a delegate to the national convention at Baltimore from the Fourth Congressional District. The delegation goes to Norfolk uninstructed.
